UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Judge Johnston conducted a revocation hearing on June 21, 2022. (Doc. 56.) The United States accused Main of violating his conditions of supervised release for failing to complete his 180-day term at the Great Falls Residential Re-entry Center. (Doc. 52.) At the revocation hearing, Main admitted that he had violated the terms of his supervised release by failing to complete his 180-day term at the Great Falls Residential Re-entry Center. (Doc. 56.) Judge Johnston found the violation Main admitted are serious and warrants revocation of Main's supervised release. Judge Johnston recommended Main be incarcerated for 4 months, with 27 months of supervised release to follow, with the first 4 months of supervised release under home confinement. (Doc.61.) Main was advised of his right to appeal and his right to allocute before the undersigned. (Doc. 56.)

Main now opposes Judge Johnston's Findings and Recommendations, objecting to Judge Johnston's recommended length of custody. (Doc. 62.)

The Court has reviewed Judge Johnston's Findings and Recommendations as well as Fast Horse's objection. The undersigned conducted a revocation hearing on July 11, 2022. (Doc. 64.) Main and his attorney were allowed to allocute before the undersigned. Main's violation of his conditions of supervised release represents a serious breach of the Court's trust. This violation proves serious. Judge Johnston has recommended that the Court revoke Main's supervised release and commit him to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for 4 months. (Doc. 61.) Judge Johnston further recommended 27 months of supervised release to follow with the first 4 months of supervised release spent in home confinement. (Id.) Accordingly,
